FOREWORD

As we, the class of "48," go our various ways, we can always wander back to Euclid Central in spirit, by opening this book of "Golden Memories." Within its pages are recorded the many pleasant activities of the year which is the threshold of a new life for all of us. May this book recall only happy hours for everyone.

DEDICATION

We dedicate this book, Opus '48, to Mr. Richard Keay, one of the pioneer members of the faculty. His quiet dignity, as well as his teaching ability, makes him one of the most respected teachers in Euclid Central. For twenty-five years he has devoted himself to the science classes of our school, as they have devoted themselves to him. His students will always remember his efforts to help them.

He works loyally with our athletic teams. Whether we have winning teams or losing teams, he backs them whole-heartedly, and with heart-warming spirit and interest. His first day at Euclid Central was really a lucky one for all its students and faculty members.

THE ADMINISTRATION

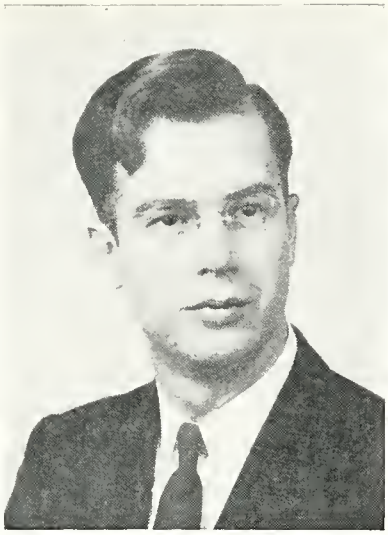
This yearbook is the interesting record of an interesting high school class. It tells the story of happy friendships that have been made through the years. After all is said and done, the years we spent in high school are the happiest of our lives. Young people often do not discover this until the years of mature experience force this view upon them.

It is my hope that your high school has prepared you well for the years ahead. You have learned to work, to play, and to enjoy wholesome recreation. While you have been busy with your studies, you have had an opportunity to develop good attitudes and a broad perspective in life. Furthermore, you have had an opportunity to develop an abiding faith in your country, in your homes and in your fellow associates. Cherish these above any price. Do not let anyone despise your youth, your vision or your faith in humanity.

R. H. ERWINE

This yearbook is more than a pictorial account of a school, its faculty, and its student body; it is a real expression of life in a democratic society, in Euclid Central, which we have all learned to love. My personal congratulations to the staff and to the sponsor of this year's "Opus." They can be justly proud of a real accomplishment.

Clifford G. Owens
Principal



Dean of Boys

Mr. Robert Holloway became Dean of Boys in September of 1947. Past experiences have equipped him well for this position. During his term of service to his country, he had a great deal of experience with handling men. This, along with his college education, has well fitted him for the job he holds.

Dean of Girls

In the fall of 1947, Miss Clara Chiara took over the position of Dean of Girls. Since Miss Chiara had previously been a member of the faculty, she was already well acquainted with the school routine, faculty, and many of the students. Under her guidance, the girls are led along the road to better citizenship.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The school board is a group of citizens elected by popular vote. This board of Euclid citizens has charge of various appropriations for maintenance for additions to the schools. And they also control the actions of the school system as a body. The members of the Board of Education are: John F. Davis, C. E. Bowman, Russell Glass, Loren J. Bullard, Anton E. Strohm.

Senior Farewell Poem

In the days that soon will come,
Please always keep in mind
All the laughs and tears,
The friends you'll leave behind

Open locker doors filled with
Pictures of the year,
Senior plays, basketball games,
Shouting and the cheers.

Days spent in the chem lab
Filling the place with smoke,
The way the girls looked after gym,
It really was no joke.

These memories will never fade,
Nor from your minds will dart
But, forever, will be laid
In a pocket of your heart.

Congressman Returns

Congresswoman, Florence Galer, just returned to Washington, D.C., with two famous hair stylists who are also former classmates. They are Anne Chinchar and Juanita Huston, who have made head line news in Hollywood at the M.G.M. studios.

Easy Money

Since graduating from high school in 1948, Arthur Bosco, Jack Saefkow and Bill Tomazic have become noted millionaires through a get-rich-quick investigation, and the results were: the three of them formed a company putting ads in various magazines reading—"if you want to get rich quick send in a dollar for the information!" Then they in turn send back a note saying "get enough suckers to send in dollar bills and you will get rich quick." Oh, well, good luck boys.

Brew Takes Over

Since Howie Lund has been in the hospital with a serious case of permanent "hoarseness," Barbara Brew has taken over his post as disk jockey on station E.C.H.S. Dale Galer, the famous loafer of his generation, has spent much of his time there, counting how many times a record turns while being played.

Letter to the Editor

This newspaper received a letter a few days ago from Captain Al Delgado of the U.S. Navy, who wrote that on his way to South America he met four of his former classmates as passengers of his ship. They were Shirley Miller, Valeria Kalin, Bob Drobnick, and Milan Mihalich, who were completing the last lap of their round-the-world tour.

Stars Come to Town

"Have you been down at the Palace this week to see that wonderful show?" Things like this are being said all over greater Cleveland since Bob Herendeen and his band have moved itno town. Featured along with him is Vi Jean Schultz straight from Hollywood, after finishing her picture with Van Handsome. They have temporarily set up a first aid station in the lobby for all the men who faint from her radiating beauty as she walks on the stage. Also along with the show is Bill Bartol, who has been touring the U.S. with his "talking accordian." It has just been announced by Doris Kollmorgen, the traveling secretary for the band, that all former classmates of Bob's will be admitted free.

Businessmen of '58

The most successful businessmen of 1958 title has been given to Mr. Bill Ragborg, Alvin Gower, and Anthony Martucci, who combined their talents and organized a consultant firm on which they advise the people on retiring young and living the life of Riley. They were flooded every day with hundreds of people, including Jim Meglan, and Diana Klopovic, who is so so tired of teaching kindergarten but was told by the school that she would have to wait till she's 65. But now that they advised millions of people, the trio has decided to retire themselves. Bill has moved to Florida, Anthony to California and Alvin to South America. Bill's house is so big that he has hired Stanley Ivancic as chief guide so he won't get lost in the house. A house guest of Mr. Martucci last week was his former classmate Mr. Dick Teske, who has just completed a non-stop highway from Euclid to California, called the Teske Turnpike.

Breaks U. S. Record

H. Breaks U. S. Record

Champion flag pole sitter, Harold Anderson, is sitting in his glory on top of the highest flagpole in the world, which is in Euclid. After sitting high for one year, two months, three days and twelve and a half hours, he is very glad to get back to earth. When asked what he saw from his post 1500 feet in the air he said, "One thing I saw was Joan Jonnson, Josephine Lette and Joan Rammel in their helicoptors and they stopped a few times to visit me. Also Tom Glass passed me up when he was thrown from his new invention — a gasless car, which resulted in an explosion. I also saw Jim Pickman, Greta Cochrane, Ay Kriz and Ronald MacKay fly by on their air trip around the world. It's a funny thing, but from that pole I could see with the aid of my powerful binoculars, Mary Ann Budan, Lillian Kolman, Beverly Parker, Marge Petrick, Pat Lally, and Louise Svetin, walking their bunch of children to school where I think I saw Evelyn Evans and Nancy Stumpf as teachers and Ed Clark as chief custodian."

Then Mr. Anderson was rushed to the hospital for a period of recuperation where he will have Rose Marie Gribbons, Betty Johnson, Janet Marshall, and Jo-Ann Rentz for nurses.

New Head

The new Euclid Glenville Hospital has just appointed Louis Theodosion as head pharmacist there.

Cure Discovered

Secretaries Mary Jane Iczak, Marion Poch, and Evelyn Tuck disclosed today that the noted duet of the medical world, Doctors Norbert Archbold and Glenn Crawford have finally found a cure when called on the case of Bob Compton and Jim Ward, the famous lizard trainers. At first it was thought that the lizards caused the disease; however, with the aid of the well-known authors John Blakesley and Gerald Yeary, who have done quite a bit of research to help their friends, this idea was dropped. The cure is not al-

Clock Makes Money

Engineers David Blauch, David Fielding, Steve Haydu and mechanics Hank Eichhorn, Camil Paschai, and Dick Stuck have combined their great talent in making clocks which go slow at night and fast during school time. Accountant Arthur Goodman has figured out that in the six months production this clock has made $14,999,995 profit for this group.

Redecorate "White House"

Juanita Cole, Ellen Hofmann, Jackie Johnson, and Dolores Koenig, heads of the C.H.J.D. Interior Decorating Company, have recently been asked to redecorate the White House. They have just completed a book which contains decorating hints. The book was illustrated by Carroll Barber, the noted commercial artist.

Restaurant Booms

Since Herman Haffner, Theresa Heiser, Georgene Black, Lois Krebs and Jane Sowden have graduated from college with the highest honors obtainable they have had very very good luck in getting jobs. Mr. Heffner is the chief bottle washer at the Cleveland Hotel, and Miss Heiser, Miss Black, Miss Krebs, and Miss Sowden have a job as dish wipers there. Also Ethel Coulson, Mary Jane Kantner, Jack Posch, and Helen Stampfel, who have recently been voted the most successful people in 1958 leading a drive promoting the enlargement of Dagwood sandwiches.

Knapp Named Editor

Ceil Knapp, who recently was named editor of Euclid's daily newspaper "The Gabby Times," ran a column last week called "Let's Gossip," told us what some of the former graduates from Euclid Central have done with themselves—or shall we say not done with themselves? — anyway — Last night the first column appeared and this is what we found. Jean Kaucnik, Lillian Kinkopf, and Jennie Martincic have opened a modeling agency in New York which so far has proved very successful. Ken Moon, it seems, is still a bachelor, but all reports state that he is very happy???? Bob Moses, president of the American Pretzel Twisting Company, reports that business is as "doughy" as ever. Joan Rammel, chief stewardess of United Air Lines, stopped off at Nicaragua the other day and saw Alice Vogrine, who is still trying to get the Marines out of there. Her foreign correspondent, Shirla Matthews, is keeping the White House up on Alice's work. Dorothy Martens has opened a drive-in-restaurant down there also. Seems to be a busy place!!

Lawyer Makes Good

Out of college at last are Chuck Smaltz, Don Pokorny, Marian Shebanek, and Al Strasshofer. Chuck's first law case "The State vs. 'Shoulders'" proved successful for the great lawyer, and he is now off to a flying start. Don Pokorny plans to play pro football with the Browns along with Stan Poropat and Bill Mower. Marian just received her degree as an occupational therepist and Al has received one in the farming field.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

Golden Gloves

Dan Trebisky has just announced that he will enter the Golden Gloves Contest after last Friday's knockout over "Slugger McGoon."

Scientist at Work

Dick Wirth, noted electronic expert, has been working on a contraction to the Einstein Theory. His promoter is Bob Kelley, well-known millionaire.

Trades Horses

Owner of the "Ride Em Cowboy Ranch," Bill Shirilla, just announced that Bing Crosby is going to trade in his horses for some of this ranch's stallions and try again.

Businesswoman '58

Jackie Boyd, Ann Dragonette, Mary Kovacich, and Elizabeth Szemenyei have formed a chain of beauty shops in New York, Chicago, Miami, and Hollywood. This group of prominent women have just been awarded the plaque for "The Most Successful Business Women of 1958."

Music Is Tops

The combined bands of Al Belpulsi and Bruce Cumming will be at the Palace July 4 with our own Norma Grandillo and Bruno Petricig as featured soloists. Also Marjorie Bell and Ruth Frazier will be in town with the Metropolitan Opera Company next spring. Miss Bell has the lead in the opera "Madame Butterfly" and Miss Frazier in "Lakme." Vilet Bratel made her debut with the Cleveland Orchestra as the oboe soloist last week, where she was very well received. Rosemary Dirk, Dorothy Olesinski and Margery Wright have formed a piano trio which has become nationally known. This is the first of its kind featuring three girls.

Robbery Here

Last evening, while the former Miss Carol Gordon and her husband were enjoying a neighborhood movie, their house at 00000000 Nothings Ave was robbed down to the last toothpick. Naturally, as everyone does, they called the Get-Him Detective Agency, headed by Joe Zupanic and Charles Kopsick, to solve the case. Immediately they called Captain Ed Medves of the police force who in turn sent out policemen Bob Laird, Ray Shawke, Bill Mills, and Frank Parziale, who are known for their good work in other cases of this type. Riley Westmoreland, known as the second Sherlock Holmes, arrived within five minutes after he was called, and within two minutes he had discovered some invisible foot-prints on the ceiling. He will check them this afternoon and the robber is expected to be found by evening. Ivan Weinstock, owner of the "Never Know What to Expect" insurance company, assured the unfortunate people that they will receive approximately 10,000 dollars in pennies. Pretty good, hey what? This information was disclosed today by Miss Jane Adams and Miss Ruth Zach, secretaries of the detective agency.

JR. CLASS PLAY

On November 21, 22, 1947, the Junior Class presented "The Whole Town's Talking," which is a hilarious comedy about a wealthy manufacturer who wants to "marry off" his daughter to a junior partner. In order to make his partner seem more exciting and romantic to his daughter, he invents a fantastic love affair involving the junior partner and a famous movie actress. Letting the story slip out, it soon becomes the talk of the town, but matters really become complicated when the actress and her fiance arrive in town.

The play, under the direction of Mr. Burgin, was double cast with twenty-six Juniors taking parts.

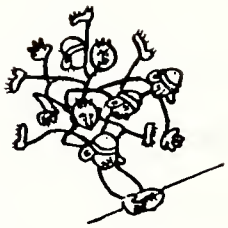
REMEMBER



Dear Diary,

September 3, 1947

Well, school's started again and is more crowded than ever. There certainly are a lot of new students.

September 5, 1947

Went to the Round Robin at Shaw Field and saw our team beat Garfield 6-0.

September 19, 1947

The Girls' Leaders sponsored the first dance of the year. It was a Sadie Hawkins Dance and was really super.

September 26, 1947

The Quiz program in assembly was a riot. The student team won, of course, over the faculty team.

October 3, 1947

Went to Bedford to see the football game and added my voice to the cheering section for our victorious team.

October 10, 1947

Today's annual Shore-Central football clash dashed my hopes to the ground. We lost. Oh, well. Next year———

October 17, 1947

The faculty took over the assembly today and really put on a show. It must have taken Mr. Harper a long time to learn to play the violin three different ways.

October 24, 1947

Tried to get out of locked trunk today like Earl Lockman, escape artist. I still can't straighten up.

October 31, 1947

Happy days are here again! N. E. O. T. A. had their meeting today and we had no school.

November 11, 1947

Went to Gala Night with you-know-who and had loads of fun. Gerry Yeary was swell as Master of Ceremonies and all the acts were good.

November 14, 1947

Our assemblies are getting better and better. Mr. Latter's 7B's are talented and their program went over big with everyone.

November 21, 1947

Saw the Junior Class Play, "The Whole Town's Talking," tonight and nearly split my sides laughing. Art Morse looked so funny in that chandelier.

November 27, 1947

Turkey and all the trimmings! Mmmm—— I'm so full I can hardly move. No school even adds to the enjoyment of Thanksgiving.

December 5, 1947

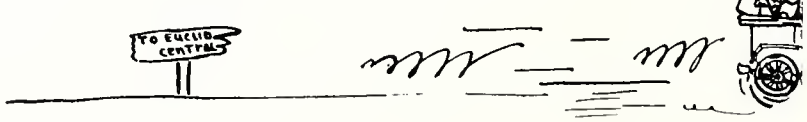
What a day! Everyone's busy. A band concert assembly, the Wickliff basketball game and the Opus "Scarecrow Dance" all in one day. Whew!

December 10, 1947

The band had a benefit concert to raise more money for their new uniforms. Hope they have enough now.

December 19, 1947

Finally!!! We actually beat Shaw in the basketball game tonight. What a wonderful feeling! Everyone's still cheering!!!



December 22, 1947
Two whole weeks of vacation! Better start getting out the Christmas lights for the tree.

January 6, 1948
Had my picture taken three times today, for the Opus, of course.

January 10, 1948
Went to the Snowball Dance and saw Shirley Miller and Bob Drobnick crowned Snow Princess and Snow Prince. Was really nice!

January 16, 1948
What will those Seniors think of next! HUGE, red cellophane bows and pants at half mast! (Haven't lost a basketball game yet.)

January 22, 1948
Saw the Senior Commencement program tonight. How serious they all looked, as if they missed us already.

February 6, 1948
I'll be hoarse for a week after that thrilling game between Shore and our Lions. We were victorious for the second time.

February 20, 1948
Went to that Foreign Affairs Card Party and had a wonderful time and for a good cause too.

February 28, 1948
My aching feet! I'll have to sleep for a couple of days to get back to normal after the exciting Friendship Formal. Didn't get in 'til the wee small hours but had such fun!

March 8, 1948
All-Star basketball game again. Didn't know whether to root for Army or Navy. I had girlfriends on both teams. Those skits certainly showed imagination.

March 18, 1948
The Senior Class Play was very good and showed some fine acting ability.

March 30, 1948
Big Night brought out some more talent who put on a very enjoyable program. Gee! Wish I could sing — or something!

April 16, 1948
The Concert in Swing sounded wonderful and everyone was sorry when the curtain closed.

April 20, 1948
Something new has been added. A Speech and Drama Night! Shows some people really lean something in class.

April 21, 1948
Opposed Western Reserve Academy in a track meet today. These boys sure can run.

April 30, 1948
Not all the talent is in the Senior High. Today was Junior High Night. Drew a big crowd. Enjoyed every minute of the program.

May 7, 1948
Another Patron's Concert. More wonderful music. An orchid to Mr. Harper and the band.

May 15, 1948
How do those boys do it? I get out of breath running for the bus, but to them a mile is nothing. The District track meet brought more prizes to our home ground.

May 23, 1948
Went to the Baccalaureate Service today and listened to the choir and heard a very good talk.

May 29, 1948
My favorite dance! The Prom! Had scrumptious time dancing to wonderful music. I'm saving my courage.

June 1, 1948
Commencement again. There were quite a few graduating this time. Everyone looked so proud.

June 4, 1948
The term certainly went by fast! School's out again and another three months of vacation has arrived. Just think! No more homework!!!

SR. CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class play "Berkeley Square" was presented on March 18 and 19, 1948. This is a love story of a present-day American, who is unceremoniously thrust into the bewigged and powdered life of Eighteenth Century London, and an English girl, who has been dead more than a hundred years before his birth.

This year the Seniors discussed many play possibilities before the vote was taken. Jo-Ann Rentz was chosen student director because of her fine job as manager last year. The set was under the direction of Walter Jerros, due to the illness of Mr. Vollman, and Mr. Edward Hoon was faculty director.

BASKETBALL

Again the Opus has the pleasure of writing the story of a championship team. Not only the teams of the Eastern Conference, but the teams of greater Cleveland and townships east of here felt the sting of defeat as the Euclid Central five rolled through its schedule defeated only by the Alumni. The highlight of the season was when these boys defeated our rivals, Euclid Shore, twice in the same year. In the rallys before and after the games, the school showed its appreciation to Coach Calvert for his hard work in developing this fine team. We hope he does just as well next year. Captain and high-point man this year was Stan Poropat, who counted 141 points during the regular schedule. In the tournaments the team got as far as the quarter-finals by defeating an aggressive Shaker Heights team. They then lost to a very powerful Lakewood team, a team which incidentally went all the way to the finals. Congratulations to Stan, Coach Calvert, and the boys on a very successful season.

Congratulations are due to yet another group of Mr. Calvert's boys, the reserves. Although they did not win a championship, these boys lost only two games, and missed a tie for top honors, when Shore defeated its last opponent by one point. Nice going, Reserves!

BASEBALL

The 1947 baseball team really did a great job. Much to the pleasure of the faculty and students, this team came through to beat Shore twice and win the Eastern Conference title. This was a particularly good job inasmuch as this was Coach Miller's first year at Euclid Central. He worked hard and so did the boys to develop a team that went through the schedule undefeated. One of the "sparkplugs" on the roster was Joe Lovsin who did a superb job on the mound. The boys got as far as the play-off and were defeated then by some bad breaks. Here's a salute to Coach Miller; may he do as well this year.

TRACK

The 1947 Track Team enjoyed a very successful season last year by winning all their dual and triangular meets, and making an impressive showing at all relays and conference runnings. The thrill of the season was when they became Eastern Greater Cleveland Champions in Class C. They sustained another record by winning all their dual meets. It leaves them unbeaten in dual competition in over two years. Although all the meets are away, the "Opus" will be in back of them wishing them a very successful season. "Good Luck!"

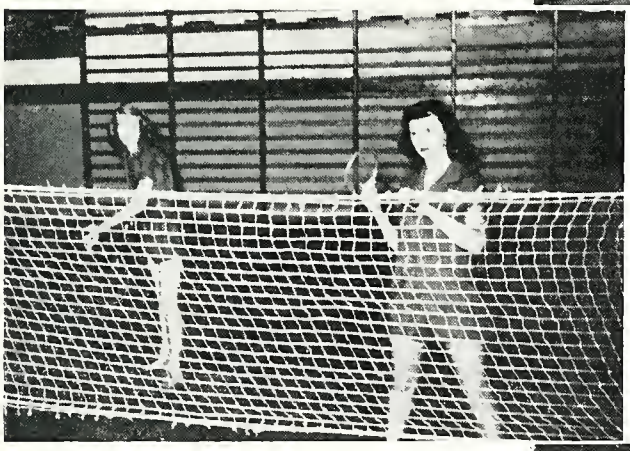
GIRLS' SPORTS

Reaching its heights at Euclid Central High School are the ever-popular girls' sports under the direction of Mrs. Betty Weber, girls' physical education instructor. Basketball, baseball and volleyball are still gaining in popularity. Having a lot to do with these sports are the Girls' Athletic Association, and the Girls' Leaders, the former being the sponsor of the All-Star Basketball Game which takes place in March. The girls of the two well-known teams, Army and Navy, are picked for their sportsmanship and their ability. After the game is played, a plaque is awarded to the winning team, and one to each of the winning teams in the other sports which took place during the year. Emblems are also given to girls with seventy-five points or more that were obtained by participating in sports in and out of school.



CHEER-LEADERS

The cheerleading squad this year is composed of five varsity girls, and five reserves. The girls have worked hard to develop better cheers and more successful pep rallies.

The Varsity squad this year consists of Rose Marie Gribbons, Janet Marshall, Mary Cherry, Marge Bell, Nancy Beck.

The Reserves are: Shirley Danley, Rhoda Miller, Ruth Recher, Bernice Jurcak, Reita Williams.

There is also a Freshman squad of girls. They are: Rosemary Valencic, Gale Emerich, Esther Kubic, Nancy Steinbrenner, Alice Kusar.

MUSIC

EUCLID CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Wearing smart new uniforms of blue and gold, the Euclid Central Band has continued to uphold its fine reputation not only in the school but throughout Greater Cleveland. The band and its director, Mr. Dale Harper, have proved themselves versatile, being equally adept at martial, classical, or popular music, and this undoubtedly accounts for the success of their many public appearances. During the football season the band played at every game at home or away with a snappy new routine each week. As a concert band, they were seen at Gala Night, the traditional Patrons' Concerts, the Concert in Swing, Big Night, and a special Benefit Concert to raise funds for the uniforms. During the year the band also plays concerts at local industries, and visits each of the Euclid grade schools to acquaint the pupils with the instruments and types of music. Since 1942 the band has maintained its standing in the first division of the state contest, and has consistently placed a high number of winners in the Greater Cleveland Solo and Ensemble Contest. The hard work of each member and of the director have given Euclid Central a band to be proud of.

CHOIR

Whether singing an old Christmas carol, the Negro spiritual, "Dry Bones," or a popular tune like "Winter Wonderland," the sixty-eight Senior Choir members do equally well. The selections they present are representative of the spirit of American music. And although they often appear at assemblies and concerts, the most beautiful and memorable time is the traditional Christmas Service. To this inspiring program was added this year the use of an organ on which Mr. John Beck, choir director, gave recitals. From the Choir sixteen members are chosen for the Madrigal group, which sings for local clubs, churches, and industries, in addition to the programs at school.

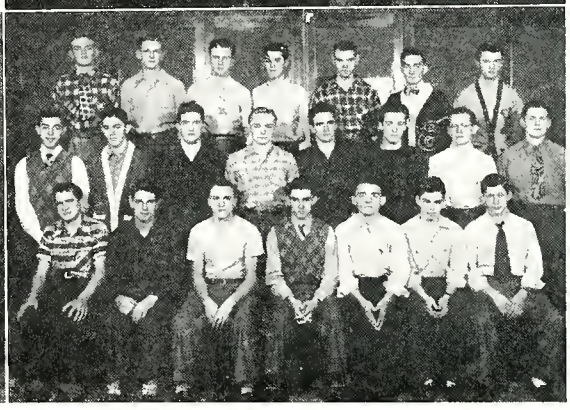
EUCLID CENTRAL ORCHESTRA

No commencement without the orchestra playing "Pomp and Circumstance," or no class play without the orchestra in the pit would be complete, for this group of fifty-three musicians fill a special spot in Euclid Central's life that no other organization can take. Although the orchestra usually is assisting rather than taking the spotlight, it is very impressive when it appears at a concert with girls in formals and boys in dress suits. Also it has distinguished itself several times by taking first place in the Greater Cleveland Orchestra Contest of the Class A group. The Orchestra is an important part of the musical activity of Euclid Central.

THE JUNIOR BAND

In 1942, Albert Mitchel organized the Junior High Band at Euclid Central with an enrollment of thirty-five. Since then it has almost doubled in size and has distinguished itself in many ways. Members of the band have placed high in the Greater Cleveland Solo and Ensemble Contests, and it has taken first place in the Junior Band Contests. Since its first concert in 1943, the band has given at least one concert a semester. This year it appeared on Junior High Night and at the Benefit Concert. Besides the entertainment and enjoyment it provides, the Junior Band gives experience to the members that is valuable for a place in the Senior Band.

MUSIC ACTIVITIES



With sparkling white uniforms and twirling batons, our four drum majorettes strutted across the field at every football game this year. Head-majorette, Theresa Heiser; faculty adviser is Dale Harper, and featured acrobat is Gertrude Walz.

A glance in the auditorium any morning first period would reveal the thirty-four girls of the Freshman Choir grouped around the grand piano with their director, Arthur Cartwright.

Sweet music and swaying dancers is the setting for the Rhythmasters, Euclid's popular dance band headed by Al Belpulsi.

Nothing is more appealing than a group of boys' voices raised in an old familiar tune, and this is especially true of Euclid Central's Male Chorus, directed and accompanied by John Beck.

The booming drums and blaring horns of the Pep Band sound the way for victory at the rallies or basketball games.
